SOE's supports Team PNG to Tokyo 2020 Olympics through purchase of Trukai Fun Run T-shirts

Kumul Petroleum Holdings Limited (KPHL) and PNG Ports Corporation Limited (PNGPCL) have come onboard to support Team PNG to the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games by purchasing a 1,000 Trukai Fun T-Shirts each this week.

A delighted Michael Henao, Papua New Guinea Olympic Committee's (PNGOC) Fundraising Chairman, thanked the Board and Management of the two State-own Enterprise (SOE) entities for showing patriotism and support, towards our National Olympic Team through the purchase of the Trukai Fun Run T Shirts

Mr Henao said that it was pleasing to see corporate organisations, business houses and our own SOEs leading the way in showing their support during this challenging period when the economy was recovering from the effects of the lockdowns due to the corona virus.

The annual Trukai Fun Run event which is the major fundraiser for Team PNG's preparations and participation at international sporting event each year. This year's fundraiser is geared towards sending Team PNG to the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games to be held this year from 23rd July to 08th August in Tokyo, Japan. While the Fun Run will not be held due to COVID-19 control measures, the fundraising of selling the t-shirts is well under way.

"There are still a lot of t-shirts to be sold and I want to appeal to those other SOEs and business houses out there to also come on board and support our Team PNG by purchasing T Shirts", Henao said.

For each individual purchases, you get a chance to enter into a Raffle Draw to win various prizes from Theodist Ltd and Brian Bell Homecentres.

Interested individuals and business houses who wants to purchase in bulk can contact PNGOC Marketing and Events Coordinator Sangiawi Singut on Telephone 325 1411 and or email ssingut@pngoc.com.pg to place your orders.
