Sausage sizzle Fridays to support Team PNG to the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games

Media Partners, a longtime partner of the Papua New Guinea Olympic Committee will be hosting a sausage sizzle this Friday as part of its contribution towards assisting Team PNG to the upcoming Olympic Games in Japan commencing on the 23rd of July, this year.

Media Partners, a leading media multimedia and marketing company has thrown its support behind Team PNG through this initiative which started two Fridays ago.

Managing Director, Keryn Laphorn is appealing to the residents of Port Moresby to visit the Team PNG sausage sizzle Kiosk during lunch time every Friday to get a feed and support our PNG Olympic Team. “We are doing our bit to help support our Olympic Team and we are appealing to other business houses to come onboard and support Team PNG also in whatever way they can”, said Keryn Laphorn.

The Team PNG sausage sizzle will be held from 11.30am to 1pm every Fridays until the end of June 2021, at the Media Partners Carpark located inside the Steamships Business Center (Datec Compound) along Ahuia Street, Gordons next to PNG FM.

The Hotdog and Drinks Combo deal will be sold at K15 each. With each purchase, a complementary Team PNG Bumper Sticker will be given to garnish support for our Team’s preparations to the games.

As a non-profit organization, PNGOC welcomes and appreciates all the support it can get from valued key partners and stakeholders said Mrs. Rapilla, the PNGOC Secretary General in thanking them for their continued support to PNGOC and the Team PNG campaign in spite of the tough economic challenges in PNG due to Covid-19.

Media Partners Limited is one of the partners of PNGOC and supports the organisation with high-end advertorial and visual content for its various marketing, branding and communication campaigns.
